

Chilterns Woodland Conference

Friday 12th March 2010
at Green Park, Aston Clinton, Bucks

The importance of field and hedgerow trees in the Chilterns

- 09.30 Registration, tea and coffee
- 10.00 Welcome & Introduction – Cherry Aston
- 10.10 The landscape importance of field and hedgerow trees – Steve Rodrick
- 10.40 Managing hedges and hedgerow trees – Nigel Adams
- 11.10 Break
- 11.30 Wychwood hedgerow and orchard projects – Nick Mottram
- 12.00 Orchards – Heather Barrett-Mold
- 12.30 Questions and discussion
- 12.45 Buffet lunch
-

Special Trees and Woods Project – a review

- 14.00 Welcome & Introduction – Cherry Aston
- 14.10 A review of the Project by
-  John Morris
 -  Liz Hamilton
 -  Rachel Sanderson
- 15.00 David Alderman - Tree Register of the British Isles & Ancient Tree Hunt
- 15.10 Keith Halstead - Heritage Lottery Fund
- 15.20 Steve Rodrick - Chilterns Conservation Board
- 15.30 Questions and discussion
- 16.00 Conference close

Chilterns Woodland Conference

Friday 12th March 2010
at Green Park, Aston Clinton, Bucks

Booking is essential

You can book a place by sending an email to woodlands@chilternsaonb.org or by writing to John Morris, Chiltern Woodlands Project,

The Lodge, 90 Station Road, Chinnor, Oxon, OX39 4HA

We need to know your contact details including address, phone number and email

The names of those attending

Organisation you are representing (if any)

Address

Post code

Phone

Email

The Chilterns Woodland Conference costs £30 per head and includes lunch and tea/coffee.

Please make cheques payable to Chiltern Woodlands Project

Amount of cheque payment enclosed

£

Tick here if you need an invoice

The afternoon session will review the work of the Special Trees and Woods Project, supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund. This session is FREE.

NB - Please indicate if you would like to attend the Morning session

Afternoon session

All day