

Greenproofing Landscapes

People, Trees and Places

ICF National Study Tour 2008
The Royal Hotel, Ashby de la Zouch

Wednesday 15 – Friday 17 October 2008
This Study Tour counts towards 14 relevant CPD Hours

Wednesday 15 October

		Session 1: Setting the Scene
	18.00	ICF Registration desk opens; refreshments
	18.30	Bar meals available to order
	19.30	Welcome and Introduction Richard Ogilvy FICFor, President, Institute of Chartered Foresters
	19.40	The National Forest – An Introduction Sophie Churchill, Chief Executive, The National Forest Company
	20.00	Trees in Towns II Dr Mark Johnston MICFor, Co-Author, Research Fellow, Myerscough College
	20.30	Creating and Managing an Arboretum Hugh Angus, Head of Tree Collections, The National Arboreta
	20.45	Programme for Day 2 Martin Glynn FICFor, Technical Co-ordinator, Study Tour 2008
	20.50	Day 1 closes
		[Bar meals available; Last food orders at 21.30 hrs]

Note: Dinner on the evening of Wednesday 15 October is not included in the Study Tour residential package.

Delegates are reminded that suitable outdoor clothing is required for Days 2 and 3 of the Study Tour. Please bring wet weather clothing and appropriate footwear. The coach will depart promptly at 09.00 hrs from the Royal Hotel car park.

Thursday 16 October

		Session 2 - Places: creating a National Arboretum
	08.15	ICF Registration Desk re-opens; refreshments (non-residential delegates)
	08.45	ICF Registration desk closes
	09.00	Coach departs
	09.30	Arrival at The National Memorial Arboretum, Refreshments available
	09.45	Introduction to The National Memorial Arboretum (NMA) and Tour Charles Bagot Jewitt, Chief Executive, NMA Paul Kennedy MICFor, Curator, NMA
	10.05	Technical aspects of creating and managing an arboretum – a recap Hugh Angus, Head of Tree Collections, The National Arboreta
	10.15	Delegates depart on walk Route and discussion stops as shown in the delegate information pack.
	12.20	Delegates return; Lunch

		Session 3 - People: Providing a setting
	13.10	Green infrastructure in the National Forest, Simon Evans, Chief Officer, Land Use, The National Forest Company
	13.25	Introducing our Expert Panel - Martin Glynn FICFor Climate proofing our towns using trees: Dr Roland Ennos, Reader, Manchester University Faculty of Life Science Greenspace and Greening: Nerys Jones, Strategic Greenspace Consultant
	13.40	Coach departs
	14.10	Arrival at Swadlincote Woodlands
	14.15	Delegates depart on walk Route and discussion stops as shown in the delegate information pack.
	16.15	Delegates return to coach
	16.40	Delegates arrive at The Royal Hotel

	19.30	ICF Study Tour Dinner and Quiz A three course dinner with wine followed by a fun team quiz night at The Royal Hotel.
--	--------------	--

Friday 17 October

		Session 4 - Trees: Managing our Heritage
	08.00	Residential delegates check out; ICF Registration desk re-opens; refreshments (non-residential delegates)
	09.00	Coach departs
	09.30	Arrive at Calke Abbey; Refreshments available
	09.45	An Introduction to Calke Abbey Stuart Alcock, Calke Abbey Property Manager, The National Trust
	09.50	Introducing our Expert Panel - Martin Glynn FICFor Managing a public estate with veteran trees: Ray Hawes MICFor, Head of Forestry, The National Trust Securing the future of ancient trees: Neville Fay, Chair of the Ancient Tree Forum Ancient trees and public liability: Jonathan Terry MICFor, Director, Sylvan Resources Ltd Bill Cove, Head Warden, Calke Abbey will lead the walk.
	10.10	Delegates depart on walk Route and stops as shown in the delegate information pack.
	12.15 12.15	Delegates return Summing up Shireen Chambers MICFor, Executive Director, Institute of Chartered Foresters
	12.30	Delegates return to coach
	13.00	Delegates arrive at The Royal Hotel; Lunch
	14.00	Study Tour closes; delegates depart