Field Meeting and AGM

11th October, 2007, 11.00-3.00

Godolphin House, Godolphin Cross

(By kind permission of Mr John Schofield and The National Trust)

A great opportunity to see one of Britain's oldest gardens and the National Trust's latest acquisition. In the morning we will be led around the grounds by Mr John Schofield and Alistair Cameron followed by an AGM after lunch.

At the AGM we will discuss, and hopefully adopt our constitution and discuss our proposed Heritage Lottery Fund bid for a 3 year project to map, promote and celebrate Ancient Trees in Cornwall

Meet at 11.00 at the Car Park. (Follow the NT signs from the B3280 & B3302)

Bring wet weather gear, boots, and packed lunch.

Please book by 1st October by email, tel or via the attached form:
