

South East England Regional Bat Conference

Saturday 19 April 2008

Pilkington Buildings, University of Greenwich, Medway Campus, Chatham, Kent

Draft Programme

The expected cost will be £25.00 per person

Comments and further suggestions welcome to Shirley.t@noctule.info please

09:30	Arrival and registration with tea/coffee
10:00	Introductions and welcome
10:10	Bob Stebbings – Development of bat research and conservation in Britain 1930 - present
10:40	Speaker – serotines and serotine research in Europe – Christine Harbusch
11:10	Serotines in SE England- results of long-term monitoring.-AMH
11:30	Coffee/tea/biscuits
12.00	Presentations from local bat groups on a project in their area (15 mins each)
	London –Work on London serotines – Derek Coleman (Surrey) ?
	Kent – Investigating deneholes in Kent. John Puckett (Sussex)?
13:00	Buffet lunch
Workshops Participants can attend two workshops. Serotine Working Group will be limited to about 20 and will be by invitation.
14:15	Serotine Working Group – invited participants to draft serotine Action Plan for SE
	Workshops session 1
	1. Bat ID in the hand - Jenny Clark
	2. Jules Agate – Bat detector workshop.
	3. Ali Rasey Planning policy and protection TBC
	4. Practical session – looking for bat roost habitats/sites on campus TBC
15:30	Coffee/tea break
15.45	Serotine Working Group continued
	Workshops session 2 – (Repeat of session 1)
	1. Bat ID in the hand - Jenny Clark
	2. Jules Agate – Bat detector workshop.
	3. Ali Rasey Planning policy and protection TBC
	4. Practical session – looking for bat roost habitats/sites on campus TBC
16:45	Any Other Business; Summary of day and closing address
17:00	Close

In addition to the workshops, discussions and presentations there will be poster displays and items for sale.