

By the Sheriff Hutton Women's Institute
Community Pale Project, edited by Ed Dennison

Sheriff Hutton park lies north-east of York, to the south of the village and its two castles. This book traces the fascinating story of the medieval deer park, from its creation right through to the present day.

CONTENTS

Introduction

- 1 Background to Sheriff Hutton and the Park
- 2 Parks in the Middle Ages
- 3 Medieval Hunting
- 4 The Archaeology of the Park - 1: Up to the 17th Century
- 5 The Archaeology of the Park - 2: From the 17th Century
- 6 The First Sheriff Hutton Castle
- 7 The Second Sheriff Hutton Castle
- 8 Park and Gardens at Sheriff Hutton Castle
- 9 The Ecology of the Park
- 10 The Woods, Trees and Hedges of the Park
- 11 The People in the Park - 1: 1485 to 1596
- 12 The People in the Park - 2: 1596 to 1674
- 13 The People in the Park - 3: The Thompson Family, 1676 to 1880
- 14 Sheriff Hutton Park and its Families 1880 to 2005
- 15 The Architectural History of Sheriff Hutton Hall
- 16 The Farms in the Park
- 17 East Lilling Hall and the Plumers
- 18 Concluding Remarks
- 19 Bibliography

X

RETURN SLIP

Send to: Ed Dennison, 18 Springdale Way, Beverley, East Riding of Yorkshire, HU17 8NU.

Please send me ..... copies of "Within the Pale: the Story of Sheriff Hutton Park"
@ £15.00 + £5.00 post & packing each

Name .....

Address .....

X